NEAR-NEWS AND CHATTER FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

To the lady first correctly guessing the identity of the person of whom the following is a character sketch, and bringing a copy of this paper to the Tribune office, a cash prize of $1.00 will be given. The subject of the sketch is a prominent citizen of La Crosse. After winning one prize, a contestant will not be eligible to again compete for a period of three months.

The winner of last week's "Guess Who's Here" contest was Miss Carmel Young, 220 Mill street. The subject of the sketch was Dr. J. M. Furstmann.

GUESS WHO'S HERE
It is said that originally, he escaped from the farm, and perhaps that's why he's such a hit in the brush league. In the beginning he had a corner of his eye trained on the grand stand, but he outgrew that and now all he can see is the money. His reputation as a pinch hitter led them to send him to the plate during a financial pinch, and the way he batted the silver sphere over the "E Pluribus Unum" made the eagle scream as he raced home. Financial pinches have been bobbing up with painful regularity of late years, and just now our hero is facing the slab with a home run in his eye and a do-or-die desperation in his heart. He's a nifty little fielder, fast enough to intercept bad bounds, and there isn't a manager in the business who carries a more enthusiastic line of baseball vernacular. While he is still a colt, he's getting a little older every day, but he's a corker at bottling his years, and anyway, age seems to improve him, as age improves everything that's bottled in bond.

13 Bachelors Want 13 Wives

That is to say, each of the thirteen bachelors wants a wife, and they expect The Tribune to furnish the dear things.

Now girls, get busy. In this column you will find the addresses of thirteen farmers, each owning his own farm, and each soliciting your proposal of marriage. No, no, no! It's no joke. Eligibility easily established, too. Muldoon, for instance, indicates that he'd be satisfied with a lady.

"Not too young and not too old. Not too shy and not too bold—Just the kind, as I've been told. In your arms you like to hold."

Understand, The Tribune is not a marriage brokerage; it is employed by people who have learned that, even in affairs of the heart, it pays to advertise.

Another point: Judge Brindley is authority for the statement that sixty per centum of the marriage licenses issued here in 1912 show that the woman of the contracting couple is older (if not deadlier) than the male. This, says the judge, seems to indicate that women are very generally taking advantage of the leap year privilege.

You all remember Muldoon—Harry Muldoon, steppolejack, heavy-weight wrestler and strong man at the fairs. Well, it was Harry who invented the idea of supplying Saskatchewan, Dominion of Canada, with wives by mail. Harry admits that farmers in that section are too busy to go a-courting, and the bachelors' club to which he belongs proposes that the women shall do the courting, it being leap year, and the men being in a mood so completely receptive that everything can be arranged by letter.

But let Harry tell his own story. His letter follows:

"Watson, Sask., Canada. March 13, 1912.

"Editor La Crosse Tribune.

"Dear Sir:

"Just a few lines from faraway Canada.

"I wrote a letter to your paper some time ago for young Frank Filmyer, who was looking for his mother. We have not heard from her yet, but we have located all his near relatives, and he is now on his way to an aunt in Turtle Lake, N. D. I want to thank you for the active part you took in the search, but dear editor, I am not through with you yet, I am not looking for my mother, but I am a member of the Bachelors' Club here, and we are in search of a wife. We are all farmers and each of us has 160 acres of fine wheat land and a good home on it, and it is up to me to help those poor fellows out in getting a better half to share the comforts of our homes. Some of us are Catholics and some Protestants, so if you will kindly publish this letter for us, and if it brings forth to our shacks that most essential and dear home loving creature called a wife, we will never get through thanking you for your trouble.

"But dear editor, this being leap year, each member of our club will not do any more than encourage the gentle sex. They must do the proposing, but even so it will be easy by mail.

"Now I am a La Crosse boy and well known in that dear old city, and I think a great number will do some tall guessing when I say that I was the champion wrestler of Western Wisconsin, and wrestled several matches in La Crosse. I am now champion here.

"Now if I head the list of the club it's not because I am the best man, but because you know me, and it's worth something to be acquainted. But I am only number one, there being twelve members in our club, and each member has his number from one to twelve.

"I will now describe number one. First, he is Irish; second, he is homely, with blue eyes, light hair, fair complexion, neither drinks, smokes nor chews, a protestant. Now all the others are just as good looking, some are better, all are good fellows and all have homes not over six miles from town, and every one of us wants a wife's company.

"The reason, dear editor, we have to resort to the columns of your paper is that this is a new country and there are three men to every woman, so we must either try this way or leave our farms and let our stock run while we go and look up a wife, which is easier said than done. This will probably afford some amusement to your readers, but if The Tribune can't find twelve wives for a dozen good tough bachelors, it's because there are no girls left. In case we have more correspondents than we can take care of, we will initiate more members.

"So I will conclude my letter by saying this is a grand climate, no sickness here at all, fine land, good water, plenty of fuel, and the best poor man's country in the world. But for my part give me dear old La Crosse, and when I get money enough so I won't have to work, I am coming back and learn to drink beer and take life easy.

Any ladies who care to write to us, will kindly address their letters to Box 55, Watson, Sask., Canada. "HARRY MULDOON, "Secretary."

But Harry and his eleven fellow bachelors are not the only ones, oh, dear no! There is, also, A. Brucks, of New Hampton, Ia. Mr. Brucks, also, is a farmer and a model man, to whom has come the fame of Wisconsin as a state productive of succulent dames ripening for matrimonial bliss on a middle-aged knee that henceforth will "never care to wander from its own fireside." Get Mr. Brucks' idea as set forth in the following letter:

"New Hampton, Iowa. March 17, 1912.

"La Crosse Tribune: "Enclosed please find 50 cents for which insert this advertisement. They say Wisconsin is full of old maids and widows, so I thought me it might be a good place as they are scarce in Iowa. I may be hard to suit, as she must be just right, not too old or too young, and not a crank, for I am enough of that, and be willing to live on a farm, as I am no city bum. If she wants a drunkard with a bottle in his pocket and tobacco on his chin, it is not me she is after, for I don't deal in such, so print the advertisement. "A. BRUCKS."

To complete the record, we now reproduce the "Ad." which will be found on the classified page, and which specifically invites eligible ladies of sentimental tendency to grab a good thing:

"WIFE WANTED—Writer is American and Pennsylvania Dutch, aged 37, height 5-8, weight 170 pounds, black hair, dark eyes, have some personal property, worth $1,500, use no liquor or tobacco in any form, and wish to meet a lady of small means, maid or widow, no objection to one or two children. Would prefer German American or Norwegian and expect to move to Minnesota or Wisconsin. All right rich or poor, but flirts save stamps. "A BRUCKS, New Hampton, Iowa."

We venture the suspicion that unless Uncle Sam's mail service gets a cramp there will be something doing in Saskatchewan, nor do we doubt that in New Hampton, Ia., there will be a little something doing.

FATHER OF HOUSE DIES

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 23.—Congressman Henry H. Bingham, father of the house, died here early today.

General Bingham was a well known and picturesque figure in Washington. He was 71 years old and had been in every congress since the forty-sixth in 1879. He served through the civil war in a Pennsylvania volunteer regiment.

M'GOVERN SCORES STALWART TRICK

Governor Declares Stand-pats Desire to Confuse Voters of the State by the Ballot

AFRAID TO SHOW COLORS

Want Designation of Taft and La Follette Delegates Omitted to Fool Electors

"Madison, Wis., March 22, 1912. "County Clerk, La Crosse Co., La Crosse, Wis.:

"The attorney general has ruled that certification of presidential preferences of delegates must go on ballot as certified. This is in response to different inquiries.

"J. A. FREAR, "Secretary of State."

MADISON, Wis., March 23.—Governor McGovern today issued a reply to the charge made by E. L. Phillip of Milwaukee, who is directing the campaign in Wisconsin in behalf of President Taft, that the president had been tricked by the La Follette men by reason of the fact that the names of candidates for La Follette delegates at large appear on the ballot as La Follette men. Governor McGovern declares that the Taft men are trying to conceal the real issue in this state by not making the ballot clear to the voters.

The governor's statement follows in part: "Ever since the publication of the form of ballot to be used at the approaching election for the choice of delegates to national conventions there has been more or less loose discussion in the public press about a 'trick' having been played; and an impression is sought to be conveyed that there is something unfair in the way this ballot is made up.

Trick of Stalwarts
"The fact is that the only trick attempted is by the authors of these criticisms. Realizing the strength of progressive republican sentiment in this state and the popularity of Senator La Follette as Wisconsin's choice for president these critics conceived the idea that they might conduct a successful campaign for delegates favorable to President Taft and reactionary ideas by a system of concealment.

"The progressive republicans of Wisconsin have no sympathy and but little patience with such methods. They will assist in no such campaign of obscurity, confusion and deception. They neither fear the outcome of the approaching election nor are they ashamed to display their colors. They wish every ballot to be cast intelligently and to this end have provided a notation on the ballot to enable every voter to know the effect of his vote.

"In so doing they have strictly complied with the law.

Would Confuse Voter

"The complaint is that any designation will be so readily understood by all. These critics would prefer to leave the voter at sea. Not willing to display their own colors, preferring to trust to luck rather than intelligent guidance, favoring concealment rather than light by themselves departing from custom and the plain ruling of the statute, they would like to see their opponents join them in making a farce of the election.

"One of these critics, Mr. Phillip, himself a Taft delegate at large, intimated that only proper designation would be the single word 'republican.' "How simple and childlike! In a contest such as this, in which Senator La Follette and President Taft, what information would this convey to an uninstructed voter? When the votes will be counted on April second will anyone proclaim a republican victory in Wisconsin? Of course not. There is now no contest between the republican and democratic parties. But a battle within each party is now going on at the conclusion of which the public press will herald the news that either La Follette or Taft has carried the state.

Not Party Issue

"The question in everyone's mind will be: 'Has La Follette secured a solid delegation from his own state?' And if not 'How many delegates has Taft?' Such is the issue; why should not the ballot contain some intimation of it?

"For one, I believe the ballot certified by the secretary of state is in strict compliance with law. Should any county clerk refuse to print it as now made up I should favor having an action brought at once to compel him by mandamus to print the ballot as certified.

"Any county clerk who accepts the view that the voters of Wisconsin should receive as little light and instruction from the ballot as possible may then join issue upon this proposition and thus assist in determining whether any trick has been played in the form of the ballot submitted to him."

IOWAN ENGLISH WINNER

LONDON, March 23.—In the dual Oxford-Cambridge field meet today, W. O. Ziegler, of Iowa, an Oxford student, won the weight putting event, hurling the missile 40 feet, 10 inches.

Spaniel Saves Life Of Bull-Pup Friend

He was only a bull pup, but, for a dog, he was having a lot of trouble. As a matter of fact, death was staring him in the face, for he was struggling to climb out of the swift and icy water of the Mississippi into which he had fallen. Every time he managed to get a foothold on the treacherous ice, it broke beneath his weight, and he was fast becoming exhausted in his struggles in the cold current. When all hope of rescue appeared to be lost—for his human friends were too far away to reach him in time—his little playmate, a water spaniel, seeing that his frantic barks for help were unavailing, leaped into the water, seized him by the back of the neck and swam to the other side of the opening where he was able to drag him onto the ice.

This is the story being told today by the men who were at work on the Mississippi wagon bridge, of a hero that saved the life of a playmate yesterday. The bull pup, who is the prized possession of Adolph Liesenfeld, and two other dogs were playing on the levee when the anxious barking attracted the attention of the men on the bridge to the predicament of the pup in the water. Before the men could get down to the opening, however, the spaniel had made his little bid for the Carnegie medal. None of the men knew to whom the spaniel belongs.

MAINE HEROES BURIED TODAY

With Solemn Pomp and Ceremony, Bones of Victims of Havana Disaster Are Laid Away

CROWD PAY THEM HOMAGE

Throngs Line Route of the Funeral Procession, and Uncover as Dead Pass By

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The national capital stood still this afternoon while thirty-four flower-covered caskets, containing the whitened bones of victims of the battleship Maine, now under thirty fathoms of the Gulf stream, passed through Pennsylvania avenue enroute to historic Arlington. The president and all branches of the national defense participated in the solemn and impressive services.

Flags Half Masted
Every flag in the city flew at half-staff. Pennsylvania avenue was a sombre sight, the flags on various buildings only emphasizing the crepe. Twenty-five thousand spectators stood at attention as the leaden caskets, mounted on army caissons, passed along the wide roadway. Everyone in the crowd uncovered.

Crowd Pays Homage

The funeral procession halted at the south portico of the navy department. The president of the United States, Secretary of the Navy Meyer, and all bureau chiefs and army and navy officials were massed to pay the government's tribute to its dead. There was a brief prayer, by Chaplain Bayard of the Washington navy yard and the tributes by President Taft and Chaplain Chidwick. Then, to the solemn boom of the national salute, fired by a battery down near the Washington monument, the cortege moved on to Arlington. Out Pennsylvania avenue and through old Georgetown, the crowd paid homage as the cortege passed on to Arlington. Father Chidwick and Chaplain Bayard officiated at brief committal services.

INHERITANCE TAX PAID

The inheritance tax in the estate of the late James Vincent, amounting to $826.47 was paid to the county treasurer today. The total estate amounted to $102,922.06. The heirs of the estate are: Mrs. Agnes L. Vincent, Miss Agnes Vincent, Louis Vincent, Cordella Seymour, Grace Fransens, Ida Cahorik, Harvey Harris and Henry Vincent.

The continued easterly drift of these pressure conditions will result in generally fair weather in this section tonight and Sunday without much change in temperature.

MILLIONS STARVE IN COAL STRIKE

Ten Millions Estimated Without Food in Britain, Due to Tie-up of the Collieries

RIOT AND STEAL FOR BREAD

Municipalities Unable to Keep Order; Desperate, People Steal Fuel and Food

LONDON, March 23.—Two and one-half million workers, men, women and children—were jobless today. Depending on them were enough others to bring the great total of those slowly approaching starvation because of the paralysis of business due to the strike of the miners and the exhaustion of the reserve supply of fuel up to ten millions.

Food Riots

So serious is the situation that the heads of the various municipalities have reported to the government that if the strike is not speedily settled they cannot be responsible for keeping order. Food riots have already taken place in several places, notably in Scotland and Wales.

Cotton Mills Close

The majority of the Lancashire and Yorkshire cotton mills closed down today because of lack of fuel. Their workers have been added to the thousands of sufferers.

At Wrexham and in the neighboring village of Newtown provision stores have been broken into and packages of flour, bacon and eggs carried away. At Manchester the police reserves were kept on duty at the food distributing centers because the hungry men and women fought for favored places in the bread line. In Birmingham a driver stopped a ten ton auto truck laden with coal when he went into a saloon. When he came out ten minutes later the entire contents had been carried away.

GEORGE MENOBOZA CALLED

George Menoboza, age forty years, died at one of the local hospitals early this morning of heart trouble. Mr. Menoboza was employed as a laborer on the Burlington railroad. The funeral services will be held at the undertaking parlors of Teily and Son at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Burial will be made in Oak Grove cemetery.

CANDIDATES NAMED ALIKE

VIROQUA, Wis., March 23.—It is a peculiar coincidence that the two candidates for mayor in this city are both named August Smith. They are unrelated. The younger August Smith is principal of the Vernon county Normal, and the older, a retired hardware dealer. Both are prominent here.

KAISER AT VIENNA

VIENNA, March 23.—The Kaiser arrived here today in a driving rain. As he alighted from the special train he was greeted by the personal aide of the aged emperor, Franz Joseph, who welcomed him to the dual kingdom. The emperor desired to greet his imperial visitor personally but his physicians prohibited it.

TO JURY MONDAY

CHICAGO, March 23.—With H. I. Bucklin, member of the packers' jury, rapidly recovering from the indisposition which caused a postponement of the closing session of that trial yesterday, there was every indication today that the case will be given into the hands of the jury Monday.

$55,000 CHARITY IN WILL

CHICAGO, March 23.—Bequests of $55,000 to charitable institutions are made in the William C. Seipp, the millionaire brewer who committed suicide at his home Monday. The will was filed for probate yesterday. The bulk of the estate is left to his widow and four children.

SIX KILLED BY GAS

NORWALK, Ohio, March 23.—Six inmates of the Huron county infirmary were killed and eight were placed in a precarious condition by gas which invaded the men's dormitory early today.

GRAVE DANGER IN TUBERCULOSIS

None of us, however, strong or weak, may be now, can be insured against the possibility of attack from tuberculosis. When we consider that tuberculosis is the cause of death of one out of every ten we realize how great the danger is. For this reason any movement which will in any measure tend to remedy the evil ought to receive the support of all right thinking people.

TRIBUNE TO GIVE FREE DEMONSTRATIONS OF PAPER BAG COOKING

OUTLAW GANG DEFIES PURSUIT

Believed that Allens Will Be Taken Only After Death, Following Refusal of Terms

SIDNA EDWARDS IS SWEATED

Young Mountaineer Captured, Refuses to Peach on Gang, Despite Third Degree

HILLSVILLE, Va., March 23.—Clinging tenaciously to life and liberty, dogged on every side by human bloodhounds, their overtures rejected and death sentence already passed on them for the murders in Judge Massie's court room, the remnants of the Allen gang today sent defiance to their pursuers and retreated deeper into the mountains.

This was the word that came from the spurs and gaps today. Men who know the mountains and mountain folk say the rejection of the Allens' offer of surrender cuts off the last chance of taking more of the outlaws alive. Like Floyd Allen, who tried to slash "Floy" throat when the hand of the law closed tight on him, his kin were expected to make their final stand in some mountain fortress, there to offer desperate battle to besiegers and to save a single cartridge each for himself.

Sweat Capture

Meanwhile Sidna Edwards, the youth captured yesterday, was undergoing that ordeal which, nearer civilization, is called the "third degree." Throughout the long night half a dozen husky detectives sat with the young outlaw, striving by threats and promises to draw from his lips the whole story of the courtroom tragedy, and for some exact clue to the whereabouts of his kin folk in the hills. But Edwards, true to the Allen blood, withstood all.

Watch For Friends

Under the belief that Jack Allen, the only one of the clan not at the courthouse on the day of the murders, and the only Allen who has conspicuously kept in sight of the detectives, may be keeping his kinfolk informed of all movements of the posses, detectives today put several of their number secretly to work, watching his every move.

COUNTY BOARD TO MEET

The March meeting of the county board will be held in the county court house Wednesday, March 27, when matters pertaining to the proposed tuberculosis sanatorium which is to be put up for a referendum vote April 2, will be discussed. Other county business such as road improvement, claims and the report of the building and grounds committee on the work of repairing the floor of the county jail and the repairing of the acoustics of the court room, will also come up at this meeting.

BOND SIGNS BROTHERS

Two brothers Klein, front names unknown, one a first baseman, the other a backstop, were signed by Carl Bond for the Outcasts this afternoon. They have been playing independent ball around Saskatchewan. The Klein duo totals over twelve feet in height, six apiece.

CONFESSES CRIME

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 23.—Found hidden in the attic of a city residence today Albert Koehler, an immature youth of 19, later confessed to the police he was the fiendish assailant of Miss Anna Miller, 32, a cousin, who he literally hacked to shreds following a quarrel on board-bill at the Miner home.

K. O. GETS KNOCKOUT

NEW YORK, March 23.—Another knockout is credited today to Knockout Brown. He put away O'Donnell, who also carries the front name of "Knockout," in the second minute of the first round of their bout last night at the Carlisle Athletic club.

CULINARY ART'S NOVEL FEATURE

Expert of National Fame Will Instruct Women of La Crosse in Four Days' Course

MASONIC TEMPLE SECURED

Economy, Cleanliness and Labor Saving the Fruits of This Newly Developed Art

The Tribune, realizing the great interest which the women of La Crosse are taking in the new culinary discovery, cooking in paper bags, has arranged to conduct a series of demonstrations of that new and wonderful kitchen science in this city the last four days of next week so that every woman in La Crosse and vicinity may have an opportunity to see the many attractive possibilities of paper bag cookery presented by a competent cooking expert.

The cooking school and demonstrations of cooking in paper bags will be free in every sense of the word. There will be no admission charge of any nature; the only requirement is that those women wishing to attend one or all of the demonstrations clip a coupon which appears in this issue of The Tribune and present it at the door of hall where the demonstrations will be held.

Cooking in paper bags has created a sensation wherever it has been demonstrated and the many possibilities of this truly remarkable cooking method are practically unknown to the majority of America's women although they have heard and read a great deal about the new science. In England, where the art of cooking in paper bags was first discovered and made practical, the new science of the kitchen has almost entirely done away with pots and pans and has really been the solution of the problem of the high cost of living among the middle classes of that country. A United States consul in England made a special study of paper bag cookery and sent an exhaustive report of his observations to America at the request of this government, with recommendations that paper bag cookery be taken up and promoted on this side of the big pond.

Reduces Fuel Bills

There are many claims made for the new cooking science, chief of which is that it will actually be the means of reducing the fuel and food bills. Food cooked in paper bags requires less time than when prepared the old way; meat doesn't shrink and is more palatable and all the natural juices and flavors are retained. Mrs. Marshment, who has been engaged by The Tribune to conduct these classes in cooking, has made a thorough study of paper bag cookery and most attractively presents the possibilities of the new science in her demonstrations. Not only does she lecture but actually cooks the many dishes on which she talks and after taking the delicious foods from the oven invites the ladies in attendance to step up to the cooking platform and taste them, that they may see for themselves that paper bag cookery is all that is claimed for it.

Every lady in La Crosse and vicinity is cordially invited to attend one or all of these cooking sessions as a guest of The Tribune and is urged to bring her own spoon with her that she may be prepared to take advantage of the invitation to sample the foods after they are cooked.

Has Good Recipes

While cooking in paper bags will be the one big feature of the cooking school, Mrs. Marshment will not confine her lectures and demonstrations exclusively to that interesting subject. There are many ideas and suggestions in Mrs. Marshment's lectures which, if taken advantage of will serve to assist the busy house-

ADVOCATES FARM SCHOOLS FOR ALL

Educator Declares All the Schools Should Have Model Farm in Connection

MADISON, Wis., March 23.—"The cheapest and most profitable investment that a school district could make would be to provide a school farm in connection with a centralized or graded school, where a competent teacher in agriculture could, under proper supervision, conduct a model farm."

This conclusion was reached by S. G. Lindholm, director of the New York school of municipal research, in reporting to the staff of the Wisconsin board of public affairs upon the progress made in the study of the rural schools undertaken under the auspices of the board.

He advised that, not only as an aid to arithmetic but as a valuable help to the parents, simple but adequate systems of farm accounting should be taught, market reports explained to the children, and the method by which the farm produce reaches the world markets used as lessons in geography, and wherever possible, methods of testing and weighing milk should be explained.

A summary of a report of the field study undertaken by Mr. Lindholm and his associates showed that the school conditions on the average compared very favorably with other states; that the school buildings, their equipment and sanitary arrangements were in most places good and in many places exceptionally so. He said:

"A few places have been found where local indifference and neglect have allowed the buildings to fall into a dilapidated condition, and little or no attention to be paid to the efficiency of the teaching. One of the principal reasons for the very high percentage of good school buildings and generous equipment was found to be the close inspection that the state department has, in the last few years, made of sanitation and heating plants. It was frequently found, however, that although an adequate heating and ventilating plant was installed in the building, the fresh air inlet was closed, due to neglect of the teacher or janitor to open in the morning before the beginning of the school. It was also found that although sittings of various sizes were provided in the classroom, small children were just as apt to be found occupying the high benches and large children the low benches. This lack of adjustment must be ascribed to lack of proper supervision by the county superintendent or his omission to notice these points at his visits to the schools."

As a means of making these schools meet the needs of their communities better, adequate instruction in farming and dairying is recommended, the subjects of instruction must be improved, as well as the standards of the teaching force, stricter attention should be paid to the fundamentals of reading, writing and arithmetic, and each teacher should be competent to make an examination of the health of the children to detect the symptoms of contagious diseases, should examine the condition of the teeth, and by weekly inspection force cleanliness of teeth and mouth.

The staff found many discrepancies in the reports made by school district officers, especially clerks. Discrepancies in balances were common. In the examination of these reports, however, no attempt was made to impute dishonesty to the clerks or treasurers having the care of the school funds, but this confusion and discrepancy of accounts appeared to be due mostly to ignorance. In analyzing these financial statements it was also found that it was impossible to arrive at the correct per capita cost of instruction of the children due to the fact that expenditures for new buildings were inextricably included in the items of current expenses. To remedy this condition, new forms and methods of accounting have been submitted to the state superintendent, as have forms to be used by the district clerks and county superintendents in furnishing data about school ages and attendance. These will also be submitted to the state superintendent and to the United States commissioner of education for his approval with the stated purpose of making the Wisconsin reports a model and standard for other states.

STONES THAT ARE SOCIABLE

Traveling Pebbles of Nevada When Separated Move Rapidly Toward a Common Center.

"Traveling stones," from the size of a pea to six inches in diameter, are found in Nevada.

When distributed on a floor or other level surface, within two or three feet of one another, they immediately begin to travel toward a common center, and there lie huddled like a clutch of eggs in a nest.

A single stone removed to a distance of three and a half feet, upon being released, at once started with wonderful and somewhat comical celerity to join its fellows.

These queer stones are found in a region that is comparatively level and little more than bare rock. Scattered over this barren region are little basins, from a few feet to a rod or two in diameter, and it is in the bottom of these that the rolling stones are found. The cause for the strange conduct of these stones is doubtless to be found in the material of which they are composed, which appears to be lodestone or magnetic iron ore.—Harper's Weekly.

Aerate Your Boiled Water.
Drinking water that has been boiled is usually so flat and tasteless that people are apt to dislike it exceedingly, and even though the health authorities order its use, many people will run the risk of contracting typhoid fever rather than take this precaution. If boiled water is thoroughly cooled and shaken up well in a bottle half filled, it will become aerated and have the sparkle and taste of freshly drawn well water.—Housekeeper.

WAITING

Sweetheart, I have waited,
I have yearned a thousand years,
Through chances all belated
And through Centuries of Tears.

I've expiated bygone sins
In hopes that you would wait,
But now when I'm prepared to wed,
I'm thirty minutes late.

You see she'd gone and married
The other fellow.

This "waiting game" is all right
For the assassin or the safe cracker,
But those are about the only businesses
In which it succeeds.

Lots of people are "waiting" until it "warms up."

Others are "waiting" for "conditions to improve."

Still others are waiting for this and for that.

Did it ever occur to you it pays to force things? You have to, to win. All these procrastinators will get busy about the same time. Then the "idea market" will be so flooded it will be difficult to get the individual attention you can command NOW by getting on the job FIRST!

While the other fellow is "waiting," why not send out that Multiple Letter you have been considering? By the time it's delivered the Warm Weather will BE HERE. Anyway, YOU will get there early and rivet YOUR IDEA, before the "flood" comes from the "waiters."

With our electric multiple typewriting machine we get out real typewritten letters for you at about the cost of printing, and, if you wish, we can fill in the names and addresses and make each one a PERSONAL LETTER. That's the kind of solicitation that wins the particular and discriminating buyer or investor.

Please remember, not one in a hundred reads handbills. The average housewife gnashes her teeth when she has to gather them up from her porch and chuck 'em in the furnace.

We not only Typewrite the letters, but we'll prepare the "copy" for you, if you'll tell us about what you want, and we'll do it right, too.

We have every modern device for public stenographic work and therefore can handle it in large or small quantities at a big saving of cost to you.

COOKINGEvery woman in La Crosse is interested in anything which will have a tendency to reduce the present high cost of living or serve to lessen the labors of housekeeping. It is a duty which every newspaper owes its loyal readers to assist them toward these ends by acquainting them with the latest discoveries in the culinary art and ideas for solving the many perplexing problems of keeping house.For these reasons The Tribune is particularly pleased to be able to announce a series of demonstrations of that new and really remarkable culinary discovery, cooking in paper bags.There has been a great deal published in the periodicals of this country concerning this interesting method of cooking and the claims made for the new kitchen science are many.
The Tribune has engaged a prominent and widely known cooking expert to conduct a number of demonstrations under the auspices of this paper, of paper bag cookery and every woman in La Crosse and vicinity is cordially invited to attend one or all of these classes in cooking as a guest of The Tribune, so that she may see for herself at first hand that cooking in paper bags is a practical, economical and labor saving cooking
method which will really be a boon to a busy housewife. Announcement of the cooking school appears on another page in this issue.EVIDENCE OF THE ANTI-WILSON COMBINE"Of the fact that there is a strong alliance among the Harmon-Clark-Underwood forces, there is a naive evidence from a quarter where the information is most likely to be accurate. These sentences come from the "Wall Street Journal":"An understanding has been reached by those who are managing the campaign for the nomination of Harmon and the directors of the campaign which has Speaker Clark's nomination in view. . . . In addition to this understanding, there are some reasons for inferring that it will be speedily so extended as to include those who are directing the campaign for the nomination of Con-gressman Underwood. It is not improbable that within the next ten days or two weeks an understanding of that kind will have been so made that the friends of Mr. Underwood, of Speaker Clark and of Governor Harman, respectively, will make no campaign except in territory which naturally belongs to the candidate which it will support. . . . Political strategy of that kind will be entered into if it is attempted at all with intent to weaken Governor Woodrow Wilson before the convention. The common opinion among politicians of this city is that at present Wilson is stronger than any of the other candidates. . . ."The Harmon-Clark-Underwood alliance is much more formal and sinister than a mere friendly division of territory. The same money that worked for Clark in Missouri is now working for Harmon in Louisiana; one of the agents of the St.
Louis brewers, who helped get the Missouri delegation for Clark, has since been working in Louisiana to get a delegation for Harmon. In no state is there a contest between any two members of the combination; in Texas it is Harmon against Wilson.
In Kansas it has been Clark against Wilson, in Georgia Underwood against Wilson. Nowhere is there a Harmon vs. Clark, nor a Harmon vs.
Underwood fight."In the foregoing statement Collers sets forth vigorously the most convincing evidence that there exists a "frame up" making the democratic presidential race the field against Wilson.In Wisconsin the controversy has tended to drift into personalities, criticism of Mr. Weiss occupying more space than argument relative to the respective candidates and what each one stands for. We should get back to the real issue, which is candidates, not managers.
Can any of the men interested in the management of the respective campaigns of Harmon, Clark and Underwood explain why there is no contest among them? Can they tell why each of them is heaping abuse
on Wilson, and on Wilson only?WHO IS SPENDING THE MONEY NOWIncidentally, it is interesting to read the accusations and counter-accusations of the democratic presidential candidates charging the use of large sums of money for campaign purposes, and demanding its source. This time, for one, the republican aspirants seem to be in the better light. No money charges have been heard as to La Follette and Taft, although there has been some snarling of this sort at Roosevelt.
However, every newspaper publisher has evidence in his wastebasket that huge sums are being spent in the interest of Clark, Harmon and Wilson, while so far only occasional brief
"news bureau" copy supporting republican candidates has been seen.Telephone messages to The Tribune last night showing considerable concern as to whether La Crosse housewives were dealing with Minneapolis grocers, or whether Minneapolis women were patronizing La Crosse grocers, led to the discovery of an error in the Norgaard Soap company's Old Country Green Soap
ad in which the name Minneapolis is twice used instead of La Crosse.
The mistake occurred because the Minneapolis plates were shipped to La Crosse by mistake, but perhaps the space was not wasted, because it showed that green soft soap has got the Indian sign on Minneapolis as completely as on La Crosse.If anybody had come to think that there is no longer any baseball sentiment in La Crosse, the work of Manager Carl Bond of the Outcasts, in financing the 1912 team must have dispelled the illusion. Mr.
Bond has done splendidly in his efforts in behalf of the team and it is gratifying to find evidence so substantial of the existence here of a strong sentiment in favor of the game. It may be added that general confidence is being expressed in Mr.
Elliott's scheme for putting the league on a sound financial basis.Twelve fine wheat farms, each with a husky farmer man as a premium, is the offer which Harry Muldoon makes to La Crosse maids from far off Saskatchewan. Pretty soft leap year proposition, that. And, if Harry is fairly representative of the bachelors' club in behalf of which his message of hope was sent, the matrimonial feature of the scheme is all wool and a yard wide. No mollyc-odie about bluff Harry Muldoon.

I asked him the reason. He replied,

The Two-Night Stand

"The bill met with an ominous re-

Mahomed folded his arms; his expression was calm and unafraid.But down in his heart the fires of hell were raging. If only he had brought his rifle from the tent;
even a knife; and one mad moment
if he died for it! And he had been gentle to the girl; he had withheld the lash from the men; he had not put into action a single plan arranged for their misery and humiliation! Truly his blood had turned to water, and he was worthy of death. The white man, always and ever the white man won in the end.
To have come this far, and then to be cheated out of his revenge by chance! Kismet! There was but one thing left for him to do, and he did it. He spoke hurriedly to his head-boy. The boy without hesitation obeyed him. He ran to the racing-camel, applied a kick, flung on the saddlebags, stuffed dates and dried fish and two water-bottles into them, and waited. Maho-med walked over to the animal and mounted."Stop!" The white man leveled his rifle. "Get down from there!"Mahomed, as if he had not heard, kicked the camel with his heels.The beast lurched to its feet re-sentfully. Mahomed picked up the guiding-rope which served as a bridle, and struck the camel across the neck.Click! went the hammer of the rifle, and Mahomed was at that moment very near death. He gave no heed."No, no!" cried Fortune, pushing up the barrel. "Let him go. He was kind to me, after his fashion."Mahomed smiled. He had expected this, and that was why he had gone about his business unconcernedly."What do you say?" demanded the stranger of Ryanne.Ryanne, having no love whatever for Mahomed, shrugged.

"Humph! And you?" to George.

"Oh, let him go."

"All right. Two to one. Off with you, then," to Mahomed. "But wait! What about these beggars of yours? What are you going to do with them?""They have been paid. They can go back."The moment the camel felt the sand under his feet, he struck his gait eastward. And when the mists and shadows crept in behind him and his rider, that was the last any of them ever saw of Ma-homed-el-Gebel, keeper of the Holy Yhordes in the Pasha's palace at Bagdad."Now then," said the leader of the strange caravan, "my name is Ackermann, and mine is a carpet-caravan, in from Khuzistan, bound for Smyrna. How may I help you?""Take us as far as Damascus," answered Ryanne. "We can get on from there well enough."

"What's your name?" directly.

"Ryanne."

"And yours?"

"Fortune Chedsoye."

"Next."

"Jones."

The humorous brusqueness put a kind of spirit into them all, and they answered smilingly."Ryanne and Jones are familiar enough, but Chedsoye is a new one.
Here, you!" whirling suddenly upon the boys who were pressing about. He volleyed some Arabic at them, and they dropped back."Well, I've heard some strange yarns myself in my time, but this one beats the mail. Shangaied from Cairo! Humph! If some one had told me this, anywhere else but here, I'd have called him a liar.
And you, Mr. Ryanne, went into Bagdad alone and got away with that Yhordes! It must have been the devil's own of a job.""It was," replied Ryanne laconically. He did not know this man Ackermann; he had never heard of him; but he recognized a born leader of men when he saw him.ENTHUSIASTIC?

Applied to the Human MachineLet us explain. Life-giving force is carried from the brain to every "hook and corner" of the body, through the nervous system. No mystery about that—all physiologists teach it.A great bundle of nerves—the spinal cord—carries this health and life-giving force, down through the spine or "backbone." From this spinal cord, sets of nerves branch out and carry the mental or life force to all organs of the body.A pair of these nerves emerge from each opening or aperture in the spinal column.
These openings appear between the vertebrae or small bones—33 of them, which make up the spine.The small bones or vertebrae which make up the spine are held together only by ligaments. That's what makes it so flexible. For the same reason, any one of more of the little bones or vertebrae can easily slip out of place.Then what happens? Why, the nerve at that point is pinched and the full quantity of health-giving force does not reach the organ at the other end. These sets medicines, or cut him open. Today, your Chiropractor locates the cause of the trouble, then adjusts it. By putting that misplaced vertebrae in place, the pressure is removed from the nerve, and nature

sands of Chiropractors are proving its success every day. The Chiropractor in your city can prove in your case how well this Modern Science of Common bitterness of a long siege of illness or the horrors of the operating table.

NORTHWESTERN UNITED DOCTORS

An Association of Prominent Physicians Giving FREE Medical Services to the Sick.

Remarkable Success of these Talented Physicians in the Treatment of Chronic Diseases

The Northwestern United Doctors, licensed by the state for the treatment of deformities and all nervous and chronic diseases of men, women and children, offer to all who call consultation and examination free, making no charge whatever, except the cost of medicine.

These doctors are considered among America's leading stomach and nerve specialists and are experts in the treatment of all chronic diseases, and so great and wonderful have been their cures that in many cases it is hard indeed to find the dividing line between skill and miracle.

Diseases of the stomach, intestines, liver, blood, skin, nerves, heart, spleen, kidneys, or bladder, rheumatism, sciatica diabetes bed-wetting, leg ulcers, weak lungs and those afflicted with long-standing, deep-seated, chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of the family physician, should not fail to call.

According to their system no more operations for appendicitis, gall stones, tumors, goiter or cancer. They were among the first in America to earn the name of the "Bloodless Surgeons," by doing away with knife, with blood and with all pain in the successful treatment and cure of these dangerous diseases.

Selected cases of consumption, asthma, bronchitis and catarrhal diseases absolutely cured with combination of medicine, hygiene, diet, exercise and the important uses and advantages of clothes, occupation, etc.

Cases of deafness are frequently cured in sixty days. Loss of sight, cataract, granulated lids and old weak, watery, sore eyes treated successfully.

Eczema, salt rheum, eruptions, liver spots and chronic diseases of the skin quickly cured. An absolute guarantee in every case accepted for treatment.

Patients with cancer, tumor and tubercular glands not larger than one to two inches usually cured with their hypodermic injection method, with one treatment, and this without pain.

Patients with growths larger than two inches are not invited to call.

No matter what others have told you, no matter what experience you have had with other physicians, it will be to your advantage to treat with the Northwestern United Doctors Specialists. Even if your case is incurable they will give you such advice that will relieve you and stay the disease.

If you have kidney or bladder trouble, bring a two-ounce bottle of your urine for analysis.

ENGINEMEN ARE BURNED BY STEAM

Breuer and Rossow Are Injured in Accident at Sparta; Crown Sheet Falls

The falling down of the crown sheet on the engine on passenger No. 57, C. M. & St. railway, this morning badly burned the face of George Breuer, engineer, 909 Avon street. Charles Rossow, 312 Rose street, fireman on No. 57, also sustained burns on his face but his injuries were not as serious as those of Mr. Breuer.

The crown sheet of the engine fell down just as the train was arriving at Sparta on its way to La Crosse. Escaping steam which was released as the crown sheet fell was responsible for the injuries to the engine-men. Although Breuer received the worst injuries of the two, it is said that he will recover.

It is regarded as a miracle that Breuer and Rossow escaped as fortunately as they did as it is seldom that an engineer and fireman get off without more serious injuries in an accident of this kind.

Another engine had to be commissioned to bring the train to La Crosse and Messrs. Breuer and Rossow were brought to their homes here on the train. Dr. F. C. Sulter attended the men and it is thought that both the engineer and fireman will be over the effects of their injuries within a short time.

ECZEMA

Also called Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pruritus, Milk-Crust, Weeping Skin, etc.

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED TO STAY, and when I say cured, I mean just what I say—CURED, and not merely patched up for awhile, to return worse than before. Remember I make this broad statement after putting ten years of my time on this one disease and handling in the mean time a quart of a million cases of this dreadful disease. Now I do not care what all you have used, nor how many doctors have told you that you could not be cured—I ask is just a chance to show you that I know what I am talking about. If you will write me TODAY, I will send you a FREE TRIAL of my mild, soothing, guaranteed cure that will convince you more in a day than I or anyone else could in a month's time. If you are disgusted and discouraged, I dare you to give me a chance to prove my claims. By writing me to-day you will enjoy more real comfort than you had ever thought this world holds for you. Just try it and you will see I am telling you the truth.

GENERAL NOBLE DIES
ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 23.—General John W. Noble, veteran of the civil war, died at his home here yesterday afternoon. He was 80 years old.

General Noble had been ill some time of Bright's disease. Since retiring from the cabinet he has practiced law in St. Louis. He was born in Lancaster, Ohio, graduated from the Yale law school in 1851 and started practice in St. Louis in 1855. He entered the union army as a first lieutenant, enlisting with the Third Iowa cavalry and was advanced to be ranking officer of the regiment. His wife died in 1894 and their two children died in infancy.

A Strange Catastrophe

THIS tree had stood in City Hall Park, New York, for nearly a hundred years. It showed no signs of decay. One day while the park was crowded with persons hurrying to their homes all unconscious of danger, with no apparent cause and without warning it fell and injured a score of persons—three seriously.

Just as sudden and unexpected are most of the accidents which occur daily. No mind can foresee them. No amount of caution can prevent them.

Amid such unseen dangers the only sensible thing is to carry a policy of accident insurance. Such a policy provides for the cost of injury by loss of time and in case of death takes care of the family. You have escaped the accidents of yesterday. To-morrow is yet to come. To-day is the time to act.

We paid last year 15,719 personal accident claims with benefits amounting to $1,713,046.

Education.

While the drift of our modern life in the outside world may be toward technical and scientific education, the drift in college is still toward the great teacher—the man of thought-provoking power and of spiritual capacity; sincere and genuine both in scholarship and manhood, of whom one can speak, as Carlyle spoke of Schiller, "a high ministering servant at Truth's altar, and bore him worthily of the office he held."—The Century.

ENDS DYSPEPSIA IN FEW MINUTES

Gas, Heartburn, Sourness, Indigestion and all Stomach misery cured with Diapiesin

There would not be a case of indigestion here if readers who are subject to Stomach trouble knew the tremendous anti-ferment and digestive virtue contained in Diapiesin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the sorest acid stomach in five minutes, besides overcoming all foul, Nauseous odors from the breath.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will readily understand why this promptly cures Indigestion and removes such symptoms as Heartburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, Belching of Gas and Eructations of undigested food, water brash, Nausea, Headache, Biloousness and many other bad symptoms; and, besides, you will not need laxatives to keep your stomach, liver and intestines clean and fresh.

If your Stomach is sour and full of gas, or your food doesn't digest, and your meals don't seem to fit, why not get a 50-cent case from your drugist and make life worth living? Absolute relief from Stomach misery and perfect digestion of anything you eat is sure to follow five minutes after and, besides, one 50-cent case is sufficient to cure a whole family of such trouble.

Surely, a harmless, inexpensive preparation like Pape's Diapiesin, which will always, either at daytime or during night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house.

ALUMINUM TRUST PLANS TO DISSOLVE

WASHINGTON, March 23. — The Aluminum Company of America, an "aluminum trust" today completed negotiations with the department of justice for its voluntary disintegration. George B. Gordon, counsel for the trust, conferred with Assistant Attorney General Fowler for several hours today.

The trust has plants at Niagara Falls, Massena Springs, N. Y., Shawinigan Falls, Canada, New Kensington, Pa., and its chemical plant is at East St. Louis, Ill. It is said to supply nearly all the aluminum used in the United States.

Real "Tumblers."

Originally a tumbler was far from what it is today, and its true meaning has been lost in the many graceful forms in which it is to be seen. What a "tumbler" really is may be inferred from an extract from a gentleman's diary, written in 1803, which also throws light upon the social customs of the times. The entry is as follows: "Had a few friends to dinner. Tried my new tumbling-glasses. Very successful; all got drunk early." These tumbling-glasses, soon called "tumblers" for short, were made with a round or pointed bottom so that they could not be set down when they contained liquids without falling over and spilling their contents. They were made as a sort of joke to conduce to rapid drinking.

At a Disadvantage.

"I suppose you will miss your boy while he is at college."
"Yep," replied Farmer Cornstossel.
"I dunno what I will do without him. He got the live stock so they wouldn't move unless he give 'em the college yell, an' I can't remember it."

CUTICURA OINTMENT HEALED BAD SORE

Scraped Flesh Off Bone Below Knee. Suffered So She Couldn't Sleep. Also Says: "I Believe Cuticura Soap Is the Best Soap Made."

"Some time ago I was coming up some steps when the board crushed under me like an egg shell, and my right limb went through to the knee, and scraped the flesh off the bone just inside and below the knee. I neglected it for a day or two, then it began to hurt me pretty badly. I put balsam lin on to draw out the poison, but when I had used it a week, it hurt so badly that I changed to ointment. That made it smart and burn so badly that I couldn't use it any more, and that was the fourth week after I was hurt. Then I began to use Cuticura Ointment for the sore. It stopped hurting immediately and began healing right away. It was a bad looking sore before Cuticura Ointment healed it, and I suffered so I couldn't sleep from two days after I fell until I began using Cuticura Ointment.

"Cuticura Soap is the best soap I ever saw. I have used all kinds of soap for washing my face, and always it would leave my face smarting. I had to keep a lotion to stop the smart, no matter how expensive a soap I used. I find at last in Cuticura Soap a soap that will clean my face and leave no smarting, and I do not have to use any lotion or anything else to ease it. I believe Cuticura Soap is the best soap made." (Signed) Mrs. M. E. Fairchild, 805 Lafayette St., Wichita, Kan., May 8, 1911.

First Mail Coach in 1784.

A theater owner was responsible for the first mail coach in 1784. John Palmer, Bath, England, saw that it took four days to get his actors from London. He went to the government authorities and persuaded them to start a number of coaches to carry the mails, and that these coaches should be built for speed, as drawn by the fastest animals in England. In a little while a revolution was worked.

For Children Have Best Teeth?

A doctor in the British Medical Journal makes the statement that the most perfect teeth he has seen have been in the mouths of the children of the very poor—children who never possessed a tooth brush. This physician states that these youngsters eat more carbohydrates and less detergent material; also, they eat fewer sweets, and, possibly, which is more to the point, there is something in their organizations which resists both sweets and starch.

FOOD VALUE OF CRACKERS HIGH

Soda Cracker Proven to Be More Nutritive Than Any Other Flour
Food

The public is gradually being educated to appreciate the food value of the soda cracker, and to understand the conditions under which it must be kept in order that its merit may be fully effective.

Soda crackers are more nutritive than any other flour food. Until recently, scarcely anyone ever tasted a really good Soda cracker—as it came fresh and crisp from the oven, unless he chanced to visit a cracker factory; an opportunity not open to many.

Soda crackers are extremely sensitive to moisture and when exposed to air and moisture in the old fashioned way, in open packages, could they reach you fresh and crisp, the same as the day they were baked?

To overcome this difficulty, the sanitarian has recommended the consumer to buy his goods in original packages and his advice is being generally observed. The demand for crackers in packages is growing with leaps and bounds and has to be met.

Notwithstanding the public's appreciation of the merits of the soda cracker, and the peculiar advantage of its preservation in packages, there has been, and with considerable reason, a feeling among consumers that both in the matter of quantity and quality the soda cracker package did not give him 100 per cent of value.

However, there are package crackers in the market, such as the famous Samoset biscuit, for instance, from which the consumer gets full value in weight and measure and quality, in addition to the advantage which the proper preservation of the article affords. Indeed, in sanitation, perfection of preservation and high quality and flavor, these packages afford the consumer an article of diet most important and profitable to him.

One of the causes of the present high cost of living is said to be the greatly increased cost of goods in packages over the bulk price.

However, the discriminating customer has learned that he gets full value and thus reduces the cost of living when he enters the grocery store and utters the magic word, "Samoset Biscuit." That's why they are fast becoming a household word.

SAFE REMEDY ENDS CATARRH MISERIES

Gives Instant Relief, Cures and Prevents Catarrh
and Cold in the Head

The quickest, best and safest way to cure catarrh or a cold in the head is by using a remedy that will "touch the spot" and do its work quickly without leaving any bad effects. Ely's Cream Balm, which is applied to the nostrils or rubbed on the throat and chest gets right at the root of the trouble and instantly relieves even the worst case of catarrh or cold. A few minutes after applied you can feel a loosening up in the head, the pain and soreness are gone, the sense of taste, smell and hearing come back, and you feel like a different person.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, heals and strengthens the inflamed membranes, takes away that stuffed up feeling and dull pain in the head, relieves the throat soreness and stops the nasty discharge which is the cause of the disgusting hawking, spitting, blowing of the nose, and foul breath. Hay fever victims who are made miserable by fits of sneezing, coughing and wheezing get instant and permanent relief by the use of this simple remedy.

Don't suffer another minute. Ely's Cream Balm will relieve you immediately, and a 50 cent bottle will more than likely work a complete cure. All druggists sell it.

wife in her every day duties in the home and help her to make less irksome, the tiresome tasks and less trouble, the perplexing problems of keeping house.

A distinct feature of Mrs. Marshment's cooking programs is that her menus are made up of the common sense dishes which are easily prepared and of every day service to a busy housewife, rather than the hifalutin and expensive dishes featured by the average cooking demonstrators. The object of these demonstrations, as far as The Tribune is concerned is to make the burdens of the housewife easier and to assist her in keeping the expenses down rather than causing them to be increased by expensive menus.

Far be it from The Tribune to intimate or insinuate that the women of La Crosse do not know how to cook; but that there may be easier ways of doing the same thing, ideas for serving the leftovers from a meal, quicker and less expensive methods and Mrs. Marshment will unquestionably be a big help to La Crosse women who visit the cooking school and her many attractive recipes will be a welcome addition to any lady's cook book.

In connection with the cooking demonstrations there will be a number of displays and special demonstrations by local food products concerns and dealers in cooking utensils and kitchen devices of a labor saving nature, and these displays will do much to add to the general attractiveness of the affair and cause it to take on quite an exposition appearance.

Starts Wednesday
The Tribune's free cooking school will open next Wednesday afternoon and the first class in cooking will be called to order promptly at 2:30 in the large dining room in the basement of the Masonic Temple which has been secured for these demonstrations.

Remember the cooking school is gotten up as an educational feature pure and simple, and there will be no admission cost of any nature. All you have to do is to clip the coupon from The Tribune.

Further particulars will appear in The Tribune Monday together with Mrs. Marshment's opening cooking program. Better clip that coupon now and arrange your affairs so you can attend the opening session Wednesday, March 27th, at 2:30 as a guest of The Tribune.

Hundreds of persons pushed back and forth for several hours while the auctioneer sold tooth brushes, suit cases, law books, clothing, cook books, order books, ladies' hats and a hundred other articles. A NEW PROBLEM IN BANK STOCKS

Keizer Believes Mr. Burton
Misinterprets an Ambiguous Ruling of Tax Commission

Editor Tribune:—

In a recent letter to the Leader-Press there appeared a statement by George W. Burton, president of the National Bank of La Crosse, to the effect that persons making returns on their dividends received from national bank stock would be allowed to deduct the amount of taxes paid by the bank on this stock in 1911. This was Mr. Burton's interpretation of a ruling given him personally by Mr. Haugen, of the state tax commission.

I hold that this deduction is improper for the reason that the dividends received by individuals on this stock is the net dividend to them, the taxes paid in 1911 having been already deducted by the bank in making up this net dividend. Had the bank not paid this tax, the stockholder would have received its equivalent in increased dividends. In other words, this interpretation of Mr. Haugen's ruling would amount to permitting the 1911 taxes on the stock to be twice deducted.

Mr. Burton has again written to the state tax commission, requesting a further ruling which will clear up the ambiguity in the former ruling, out of which grew what I believe to be an error. I suggest that it may save considerable labor if holders of national bank stock who have not already made their returns delay doing so until Mr. Burton's information is either corrected or substantiated.

Respectfully,
J. E. KEIZER,
Supervisor of Assessments,

WILL INSPECT MALTBY PLANS

Noted Engineer to Meet with Council Monday Afternoon to Consider Well Plans

Mayor John Dengler has issued a call for a special meeting of the city council to be held in the council chamber Monday afternoon at which time a thorough inspection of the plans of Engineer A. T. Maltby for the proposed new well system will be made by Engineer Benetzette Williams, Chicago. At an executive session of the special water committee held yesterday afternoon it was decided to make this meeting an open session.

At the Monday meeting the plans will be inspected by Mr. Williams, Engineer A. T. Maltby, Contractor Peter Nelson and the aldermen. Mr. Maltby will be present to explain any details which are not clearly understood and Mr. Nelson will inspect the plans from the point of the contractor.

If the plans meet the approval of Engineer Williams, the city council will probably return to the first plan and erect the pumping station near the site of the wells on the Martindale land while on the other hand should Engineer Williams declare the plans as incomplete and unsatisfactory it is probable that another engineer will be employed to draw up a new set of plans.

Engineer Williams was recommended to the special water committee by Mr. Maltby and other reliable references, as being a man of national reputation and competent of inspecting the plans and rendering a fair decision. Engineer Williams has done work in La Crosse previously and is well known in this city.

AN ABLE DISCUSSION

EYE EXAMINATION OF YOUR CHILD

There is so much discussion among parents over the merits of glasses fitted to the eyes with eye-drops or atropine, and those fitted without, that I am urged to write and let you decide the matter for yourself.

FOR THE TEACHER

We will take your innocent child, whom you suspect of visual defects, and drop these mydriatic drops into its eyes, preparatory for an examination of optical errors.

What takes place? Soon the pupils dilate, which increases the aperture in the iris diaphragm in front of the lens in the eye, whose constants we wish to determine.

Is that a normal condition of the eye? No! This drug has paralyzed the ciliary muscles of the eye; the tiny muscles which enable you to see, to read, or look far off in the distance—hence called accommodation.

Now then when this deadly poison has paralyzed these muscles, the doctor attempts to measure the constants and fit glasses to an abnormal eye, and make these glasses fit the eye, when it becomes normal. Does it sound reasonable? Does the eye ever get in this condition in its daily use? No!

Is your child's eye any different structurally than yours? No!

Yet the doctor does not dare use the "eye-drop," atropine in middle aged folks, because it is more liable to produce blindness (glaucoma.)

THE DOCTORS ADMIT IT

Here is the way to go about to prove drops not necessary

You refuse to permit the doctor to use eye drops, when he says drops must be used, to examine your eyes and see him wince, and then go ahead and make his examination without the drops.

Of course he is incapable because this requires skill. I'll quote Drs. Norris and Oliver of the University of Pennsylvania: "In all eye examinations the student should avoid the use of mydriatic drops. He should learn to depend on his own skill, and the time will soon come, when he will find mydriatics unnecessary."

Dr. George M. Gould, the medical lexicographer says: "The practitioner has been known to err, in this respect, and by the use of atropia-drops has developed a thousand times worse disease than he sought to cure."

Dr. D. B. St. John Roosa, formerly of the New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital, said: "Atropine, at first clearly pointed out by Dr. Derby will precipitate an attack of glaucoma (absolute blindness)."

Please note that all these above quotations are from doctors of medicine, and are spoken to men of their kin.

This advice is good for you, and should be heeded, if you have the interests of your child at heart, and do not care to injure its eyes, simply to make it easier for some doctor to blunder and slight his work.

MEDICAL SCHOOLS DO NOT TEACH OPTOMETRY

Even though there are optically qualified medical eye specialists, who must have taken other collegiate degrees than that of medicine, yet one of them, Dr. George M. Gould in Medical Review, without reserve or distinction charges that:

"As a profession our refraction work has not been correctly done. Avarice, desire for success, blunderfulness, etc., i. e., lack of a simple good school of optometry, all these things and more have usually made our diagnosis of errors of refraction and glasses-treatment an utter and amazing farce. Every student has learned to do refraction work a different way, and is mostly self-taught; hence, there is absolute individualism; and they all rely upon opticians to make and fit glasses they prescribe. Ophthalmology, long vaunted as the most exact of medical sciences, is in truth the most ludicrously inexact."

Another medical authority says: "Students are taught only the diseases of the eye—they must learn refraction work afterward from some doctor who may have entirely wrong ideas. . . . At least half of the people in America need glasses; at present it is utterly impossible for any but a small fraction of that number to get right and accurate ones."

WHAT IS AN OCULIST?

An oculist is a medical practitioner—an M. D.—a physician and surgeon in the usual sense of these terms or titles. He is licensed by a state board to practice medicine, and because the board, on examination, has found that he is qualified so to practice.

The license is a voucher of his qualifications, and the permit to practice exacted by law.

The medical license of a state board is just as broad, and just as narrow for one licensee as another. Oculists are not licensed as oculists, but as medical practitioners. He simply says he is an oculist.

His license permits him to practice dentistry but could he do this work as well as your dentist?

Can he fit glasses correctly with drops as well as one like myself collegiately qualified to practice optometry?

OPTICIANS FITTED GLASSES FIRST

Dr. G. Lindsay Johnson, M. D., F. R. C. S., defines boundary between optometric and oculistic field and says: "It is impossible to say that opticians had no claim to prescribe glasses, because they had been doing so from the time of Sylvanus

Amatus in the 13th century.

"Six or seven hundred years, therefore, had elapsed since they first started fitting people with spectacles. On the other hand oculists had only been engaged on this work for sixty or seventy years at the outside."

TWENTY-SIX STATES

Have laws to regulate the practice of optometry.

Who opposed the passage of these laws? The doctors! Why? Because, they wished to be exempted from having to take these examinations. They were not qualified to pass, and could not pass without collegiately preparing to take the examination.

Yet they are allowed to fit glasses, and many do, as a side line to their practice.

THE PROOF

Columbia University of New York graduates its doctors of medicine from their medical department, and they have a separate course for those who wish to learn to fit glasses.

This course requires two more years of study and is a separate department from medicine.

This proves medicine and optometry to be two different sciences by the great educators of this country.

THE LAST THOUGHT

Are all these prominent men and women who are wearing my correct glasses doing so in ignorance?

Could I do this work so successfully, without "atropia-drops," for them and not be able to do you?

If you are interested in this let me refer you to these people. Some have had glasses fitted doctors with "atropia-drops" their chagrin and discomfort.

A CHALLENGE

Bring me a case that is of optical assistance, and if I supply correct glasses without "atropia-drops" I will supply free with the glasses fitted doctor using "eye-drops," up sending his prescription for glasses to me.

Am I fair? I'll be honest with you and your children.

The reader will participate that all things quoted are from words of doctors of medicine cannot be accepted by you "knock" from me.

All I wish to do here is to a wrong and give you what is a "square deal" without any hidden mysteries, and in so doing not defend the optical who go about selling glasses. one can do that, and as long as will buy glasses fitted that way will have those fellows with

A little booklet issued by American Optical Association of Conservation of Vision and Optometry will be mailed free address by H. C. Evenson, Eye specialist, 500 Main St.

This booklet ought to be in hands of every mother and educator.

SPOTLIGHTS

As an illustration of almost everything one might encounter on a journey around the world, Lyman H. Howe's new program for the La Repels Attack of Death.

"Five years ago two doctors told me I had only two years to live." This startling statement was made by Stillman Green, Malachite, Col. "They told me I would die with consumption. It was up to me then to try the best lung medicine and I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery. It was well I did, for today I am working and believe I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure that has cheated the grave of another victim." It's folly to suffer with coughs, colds or other throat and lung troubles now. Take the cure that's safest. Price 50 cents and Crosse theater tonight, tomorrow matinee and night, promises to surpass all expectations. His travel festival not only satisfies the love of travel, but is a real uplift. One leaves the theater with an ever broader outlook on life in general.

Mr. Howe asserts that one feature in particular of the new program far surpasses any scenes of a similar nature that he has ever presented. It shows the struggle of three fearless guides to the dizzy heights of the Alps amid a severe snowstorm. The ascent to the "roof of the world" starts with a perpendicular ride in a car of the Cog Wheel railway of Montreux and after reaching the top platform of this unique mountain elevator the spectators obtain a sweeping view of the Rhone Valley.

The prestige attained by Mr. Howe's exhibition was officially recognized recently in a very complimentary way by the U. S. Government. One of the objects of the great naval review in New York harbor last November was to arouse greater pride and patriotism in our "new navy." Believing that this should not be confined only to actual spectators of the Review, the Secretary of the Navy, Mr. George von L. Meyer, was anxious that the country at large should benefit by the demonstration. Acting on this conviction, he granted Mr. Howe's camera men the very exclusive privilege of accompanying him on the U. S. S. Dolphin so that the three million "Howe travelers" throughout America might see the greatest naval review in American history at even closer range than the spectators that lined the banks or crowded excursion boats. The intimate scenes obtained from the deck of the Dolphin as the ship steamed past miles and miles of the very flower of the U. S. navy on the tour of inspection, furnished a lesson of the efficiency of men, guns and machinery of our mighty war vessels that is of incalculable value.

A pictorial tour through Italy, the land of history and romance; the wonders of the Grand River Canon, Colorado, and the latest mode of locomotion through water and air by means of the hydroplane, are only a few of the many other features of interest to be presented.

MARGARET ANGLIN

At the La Crosse theater on Saturday night, March 30, Margaret Anglin, the distinguished actress who has recently effected a new departure, apparently with substantial satisfactory results, will appear. Miss Anglin will appear in a comedy in three acts, entitled "Green Stockings," by A. E. W. Mason.

The locale of "Green Stockings" is laid in England at Lumley Park, the country seat of William Faraday, an English gentleman with a bevy of fair daughters, two of whom are al-

Smoke of Herbs Cures Catarrh

A Simple, Safe, Reliable Way and It Costs Nothing to Try

This preparation of herbs, leaves, flowers and berries (containing no tobacco or habit-forming drugs) is either smoked in an ordinary clean pipe or smoking tube, and by drawing the medicated smoke into the mouth and inhaling into the lungs or sending it out through the nostrils in a perfectly natural way, the worst case of Catarrh can be eradicated.

It is not unpleasant to use, and at the same time it is entirely harmless, and can be used by man, woman or child.

Just as catarrh is contracted by breathing cold or dust and germ-laden air, just so this balmy antiseptic smoking remedy goes to all the affected parts of the air passages of the head, nose, throat and lungs. It can readily be seen why the ordinary treatments, such as sprays, ointments, salves, liquid or tablet medicines fail—they do not and cannot reach all the affected parts.

If you have catarrh of the nose, throat or lungs, choking, stopped-up feeling, colds, catarrhal headaches; if you are given to hawking and spitting, this simple yet scientific treatment should cure you.

An illustrated book which goes thoroughly into the whole question of the cause, cure and prevention of catarrh will, upon request be sent you by Dr. J. W. Blosser, 186 Walton street, Atlanta, Ga.

He will, also mail you five days' free treatment. You will at once see that it is a wonderful remedy, and as it only costs one dollar for the regular treatment, it is within the reach of everyone. It is not necessary to send any money—simply send your name and address and the booklet and free trial package will be mailed you immediately.

ready married, one is about to be married, and the fourth, Celia, the eldest of them all still remains without much apparent prospect of leaving him. Having no desire to wear the green stockings, an English custom, at her third sister's wedding, Celia invents for herself an imaginary fiancé and announces her engagement to him on the day that he is supposed to sail for Africa with his regiment. The announcement is received with surprise by the family, and Celia is regarded by them all in less of a tolerated light. Several months elapse and Celia begins to feel the embarrassment of a mythical fiancé, so she puts an end to him by sending a short paragraph to the London Times, announcing that he had died of wounds received in battle in Africa. This was read by the family, and Celia overwhelmed with sympathy. Then came Celia's cross, for barely had the announcement been read than a stranger, Col. Vavasour, arrived from London, bringing the last message to Celia of her fiancé's love from his lonely tent in the African desert. The amazement and perplexity of Celia may be imagined. The colonel circumstantially relates full details of the poor fellow's last hours.

The principal members of Miss Anglin's company are H. Reeves-Smith as Col. Vavasour, Wilfred Draycott, Maude Granger, Wallace Whitcombe and Juliet Fremont.

SOME NOVEL FRENCH CANES

Handles of Walking Sticks are Receptacles for Coins, Matches and Other Things.

The ingenuity of the Frenchman has not been confined to the making of weapons out of apparently harmless canes. In fact there is quite a variety of uses which the cane is made to serve.

One of the canes is fitted with a coin box and a match box, these being contained in the head, which is provided with a carefully concealed lid. The coin box is arranged to permit of depositing and easily removing the coin by a slight pressure of the thumb, thus obviating the necessity of fishing for coins in the pocket.

Another cane handle contains a complete outfit of the game known as Petits Chevaux. When the lid is open betting can begin and the horse crossing the wire first wins the stakes. One of the latest Parisian novelties consists in a ladies' parasol handle containing a roulette wheel which can be used for gambling at any place or moment.

These handles have become very popular. They are of fine workmanship and generally of gold or silver. One handle contains almost everything that one would be likely to need. A long sheet of paper is wound around the rod, from which pieces may be torn off for taking notes. When the lid is opened penknife, pencil, nail file, combs and looking glass are disclosed. These objects are small, but large enough for practical use.—Scientific American.

Fire Engines Long Known.

It isn't worth while inquiring into the origin of the first engine built for a fire extinguisher. There were devices for this purpose before the Americas had them, and so also other peoples, crude as they were.

SOCIETY GIRLS WORK ON FREIGHT BOAT

NEW YORK, March 23.—Three young unmarried women chaperoned by one married—but just as young—woman arrived here today on the steamer Suruga after a five months' trip around the world. Because the freighter had no license to carry passengers, the four shipped as stewardesses from here last October. The young women are Louise and Florence Barber, daughters of James Barber, head of the steamship line; Constance Brown, daughter of Gerald Brown, comptroller of the Equitable Life Assurance society, and Mrs. S. E. McIntosh.

NEW MEXICAN AMBASSADOR

MEXICO CITY, March 23.—It was persistently reported that Manuel Calero would resign as minister of foreign relations and be appointed ambassador at Washington. Calero will probably be succeeded in the cabinet by Iglesias Calderon.

Revolutionized Fire Fighting.

Steam revolutionized fire fighting, as it did many other interests. It took the romance from it, and put efficiency into it. The giant steam got behind the aqueducts and forced streams through pipes and hose with great power. Firemen continued to "run with the macehen," but it was a hose reel, 19th century invention.

TRIES SUICIDE; GAS EXPLODES

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 23.—Emil Schoenleber, 45, a former government post office employee, is dying today and five other persons are injured as the result of a gas explosion which wrecked the Schoenleber home here last night. Schoenleber had evidently attempted suicide by gas in a locked upstairs room of the house. Patrolman Robran was called and carrying a lighted lantern he forced the door open.

MAY STRIKE EARLY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 23.—The threatened strike of the coal miners may come a week early in the Illinois fields as the result of the resolutions adopted at the miners' convention for sub-district five here yesterday, ordering the men to strike before an agreement is reached or a suspension of work occurs. The resolution followed a warning issued by the operators to the public to lay in a supply of coal before March 25.

HETTY GREEN BACK TO HOBOKEN FL.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Hetty Green, whose fortune is estimated at $75,000,000, most of it accumulated, has gone back to Hoboken, N. J., to live in her little flat. This was admitted today by her son, Colonel Green, who stays here care for the mansion just off Central park.

"There is nothing in New York life to interest mother," he said. "She has been looking forward to the spring when she could go back to Hoboken among the neighbors she loves, where she can live simply and in her own old-fashioned way."

Mrs. Green rents her flat in Hoboken for $40 a month. She has it furnished in simple style. Her most enjoyable diversions are her "teas" when she entertains her old neighbors twice a week.

SUGAR CASE RESTS

NEW YORK, March 23.—The prosecution in the trial of President Washington B. Thomas and his fellow directors of the Sugar trust, accused of criminal conspiracy in securing the plant of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining company and closing it down to stifle competition was expected to rest when court adjourned.

RUSHFORD, MINN.

Joe Martin and family, who have sold their farm northeast of town, have moved to Winona, residing at the southeast corner of Wabasha and Winona streets. Mr. Martin expects to farm in Canada the coming summer while his family will remain in Winona.

Miss Bena Hagen has accepted a position as saleslady at the store of D. J. Shirven to take the place of Miss Bertha Highum, who has resigned her position.

Miss Lily Berg, who has been teaching in the Anderson district a few miles from town, is ill at the home of her parents in this city. Dr. Wescott is in attendance.

Martin and Ed Horriban of Preble hauled several loads of goods to Rushford last week for their brother

Fred, who started for his claim at Brock, Sask., Canada, last Thursday.

The new roll curtain at the Elite theater has called forth much favorable comment and praise for its designer, L. A. Gullickson of this city. The edges of the curtain are covered with business cards of various business men of the city, while the center is occupied by a beautiful view of a Swiss chalet among the Alps, and by skillful blending of colors and good taste, Mr. Gullickson has produced a scene that is both restful to the eye and must suit the most exacting.

Rise, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hendrickson, was operated on last week for enlarged tonsils and adenoids. The child is doing nicely.

L. A. Gullickson was a Lanesboro and Preston visitor last Tuesday. Mr. H. M. Smith was a Preston visitor last Tuesday, going over upon a business matter for the Commercial club of this city.

Conrad Chilson and family have rented rooms in the upstairs portion of Mr. Chilson's father's home, being unable to obtain any other place, as this city has no vacant houses to lease.

Miss Emma Crampton's two new cottages on Mill street and Maple avenue were spoken for before the foundations were entirely laid. So great is the demand for rooms, it is rumored that Harry Larson is planning to erect a concrete house this summer.

Contractors Akre and Dahl have secured the contract for the remodeling of Charles Grieser's new residence. Gilbert Gunderson has purchased the old home building and will move it to his lots on Mill street for rented this summer.

Plasterers and carpenters are busy remodeling the interior of the Foshom house on Jessie street lately occupied by the Myers' family.

At the meeting of the county commissioners at Preston last Tuesday the gentlemen decided to appropriate $600 with which to improve the road leading from Rushford to Hart. The enterprising farmers adjoining the road have already subscribed a like amount and with the $250 subscribed by Rushford village and the same by the city an ideal road can be constructed.

An organization known as the Fillmore County Anti-Tuberculosis association was formed at Preston on March 15 for the prevention and spread of the white plague in this county. There were 24 deaths in this county last year from the dread disease. The officers elected at the meeting were: President, Senator S. A. Nelson of Lanesboro; first vice president, Dr. Grinnell of Preston; second vice president, Dr. R. V. Williams of Rushford; third vice president, Dr. N. N. Kendrick of Spring Valley; fourth vice president, Dr. Sannin of Mabel; secretary, Dr. E. L. Smith of Chatfield; treasurer, Mrs. Julius Johnson.

We are admonished that a good name is better than great riches—but most of us keep right on hustling for riches just the same.

VALUE OF FORESTS PROVED

In Addition to Conserving Rainfall, They Are of Other Aids to Agriculture.

While the rainfall of any region is dependent on dynamic influences in the atmosphere, and can be affected only in a very slight degree, if at all, by the extent of that region covered by forests, it has certainly been shown that woods and forests conserve rainfall. The briefest consideration indicates the likelihood that this must be so, because vegetation and the ground covered with vegetation absorb water and allow it to percolate slowly to the lower levels, whereas on bare ground the rainwater runs quickly away to sea. But trees serve another purpose in aid of agriculture; because, as some recent experiments show, they act as windbreaks and shelters to growing crops. The distance to which the protective influence of trees extends is estimated at twenty times their height, though complete protection, such as might be afforded to growing wheat in a gale, extends only to a distance eight times the height of the trees. Partial protection is about twelve to fourteen times the height. They also check evaporation of rainfall, their influence extending five times their height to windward and eighteen times to leeward, and preserve as much as 70 per cent. of moisture ordinarily lost. Finally, their influence heats both air and soil, increasing the diurnal range of temperature by as much as nine degrees Fahrenheit.

She did not know the A B Cs until she was nine years old. Her first novel, "Evelina" was written surreptitiously, and won her much fame.

In making this offer the scientist said: "I know that there are many people who have been suffering for years with some chronic disease and many of them have spent large sums of money seeking a cure. I know that these people hesitate about investing money in medicine because they have despaired of ever getting well. Thousands have told me that story and many thousands of the same people have told me afterwards that my treatment had cured them after doctors and everything else had failed. I want to show these despairing people that all the newspaper talk about my treatment is absolutely true. I want to prove to a limited number—no matter what the disease, no matter how long they may have suffered, no matter how blue and discouraged—that my treatment really and actually does accomplish the wonderful results that have been reported."

People who suffer from Rheumatism, Kidney Trouble, Stomach Trouble, Liver or Bowel Disorders, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Chronic Coughs, Weak Lungs, Lumbago, Piles, Urinary Disorders, Female Weaknesses of any kind, the weak, worn out, broken-down and despondent will be delighted at the effect of a few doses. A Drop of Blood

Or a little water from the human system when thoroughly tested by the chief chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., tells the story of impoverished blood—nervous exhaustion or some kidney trouble. Such examinations are made without cost and is only a small part of the work of the staff of physicians and surgeons under the direction of Dr. R. V. Pierce giving the best medical advice possible without cost to those who wish to write and make a full statement of symptoms. An imitation of nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous force is used when you take an alterative and glyceric extract of roots, without the use of alcohol, such as

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Which makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgment. Get what you ask for!

CALLS UP OLD WRAITH

FITZGERALD OF BROOKLYN IS BOTHERED BY EASE WITH WHICH BANK GOT OLD U. S. CUSTOMHOUSE

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The ghost of the transaction in which, on terms alleged to have been extremely easy, the National City bank of New York, acquired the old custom house in New York arises in every session of congress. That was true of the present session, a few days ago, when the wraith was called up by Representative Fitzgerald of Brooklyn, chairman of the house appropriations committee.

"Two bids were submitted for the old custom house," he said. "The National City bank made an offer. I think, of about $3,200,000 as against $3,125,000 offered by the Farmers' Loan and Trust company. The award was made to the National City bank."

"But when the contract was made provisions were inserted in it that had never been called to the attention of the respective bidders by which it was provided that all of the purchase price should not be paid until the government was ready to abandon the property, and the government agreed to pay 4 per cent upon the purchase price as rent to its purchaser, although it retained the title itself; and it also agreed to deposit $3,200,000, which was supposed to be paid in the National City bank. The result was that the National City bank made a bookkeeping transfer of $3,200,000 on its books, the government retained the title, it paid the National City bank 4 per cent on the purchase price for five or six years as rent on its own property, the property remained exempt from taxation, and eventually the National City bank practically got the property for almost the amount that the government had paid to it in rent. That is what can be done by distinguished gentlemen under pressure."

The custom house, an old structure of most impressive architectural design, was located in Wall street, in the very heart of the financial district.

To Hang Small Pictures.

Large needles (No. 1) will hold lighter pictures safely and will not injure plaster or paper. They are very strong and are often used in putting up picture molding, instead of brads. A change of pictures is often desired, but the harmful nail, however small, makes one hesitate to do this, especially if the wall surface is unfigured, and spots therefore the more easily noticed.—McCall's.

"No! Is it a fact?"
"Yes. A lot of prisoners sawed through their cell bars."

Expert Medical EXAMINATION AND CONSULTATION FREE

I want to talk to every sufferer. The fact that you have been treated elsewhere without benefit and are skeptical does not discourage me in the least; nearly all of my patients tell of this same experience. I am curing men and women every day and feel sure I can do the same for you. I especially solicit the stubborn, chronic, seemingly incurable cases. Persons who realize the seriousness and gravity of their condition, and will appreciate benefits conferred and the cure I give, come to me for free consultation. I will then explain how different from those possessed by others. My special training and long years of experience in treating all Chronic, Nervous, Blood, Pelvic and Special Diseases give me many advantages over the average physician.

I treat Rheumatism, Enlarged Veins, Fistula, Piles, Constipation, All Rectal Diseases, Weak and Unhealthy Kidneys, and Lingering Ailments.

I personally attend everyone who applies for treatment at my office, as I have no incompetent hired doctors to unskillfully treat my patients, and every man who engages my services gets the benefit of the efficiency that has marked my success in the past.

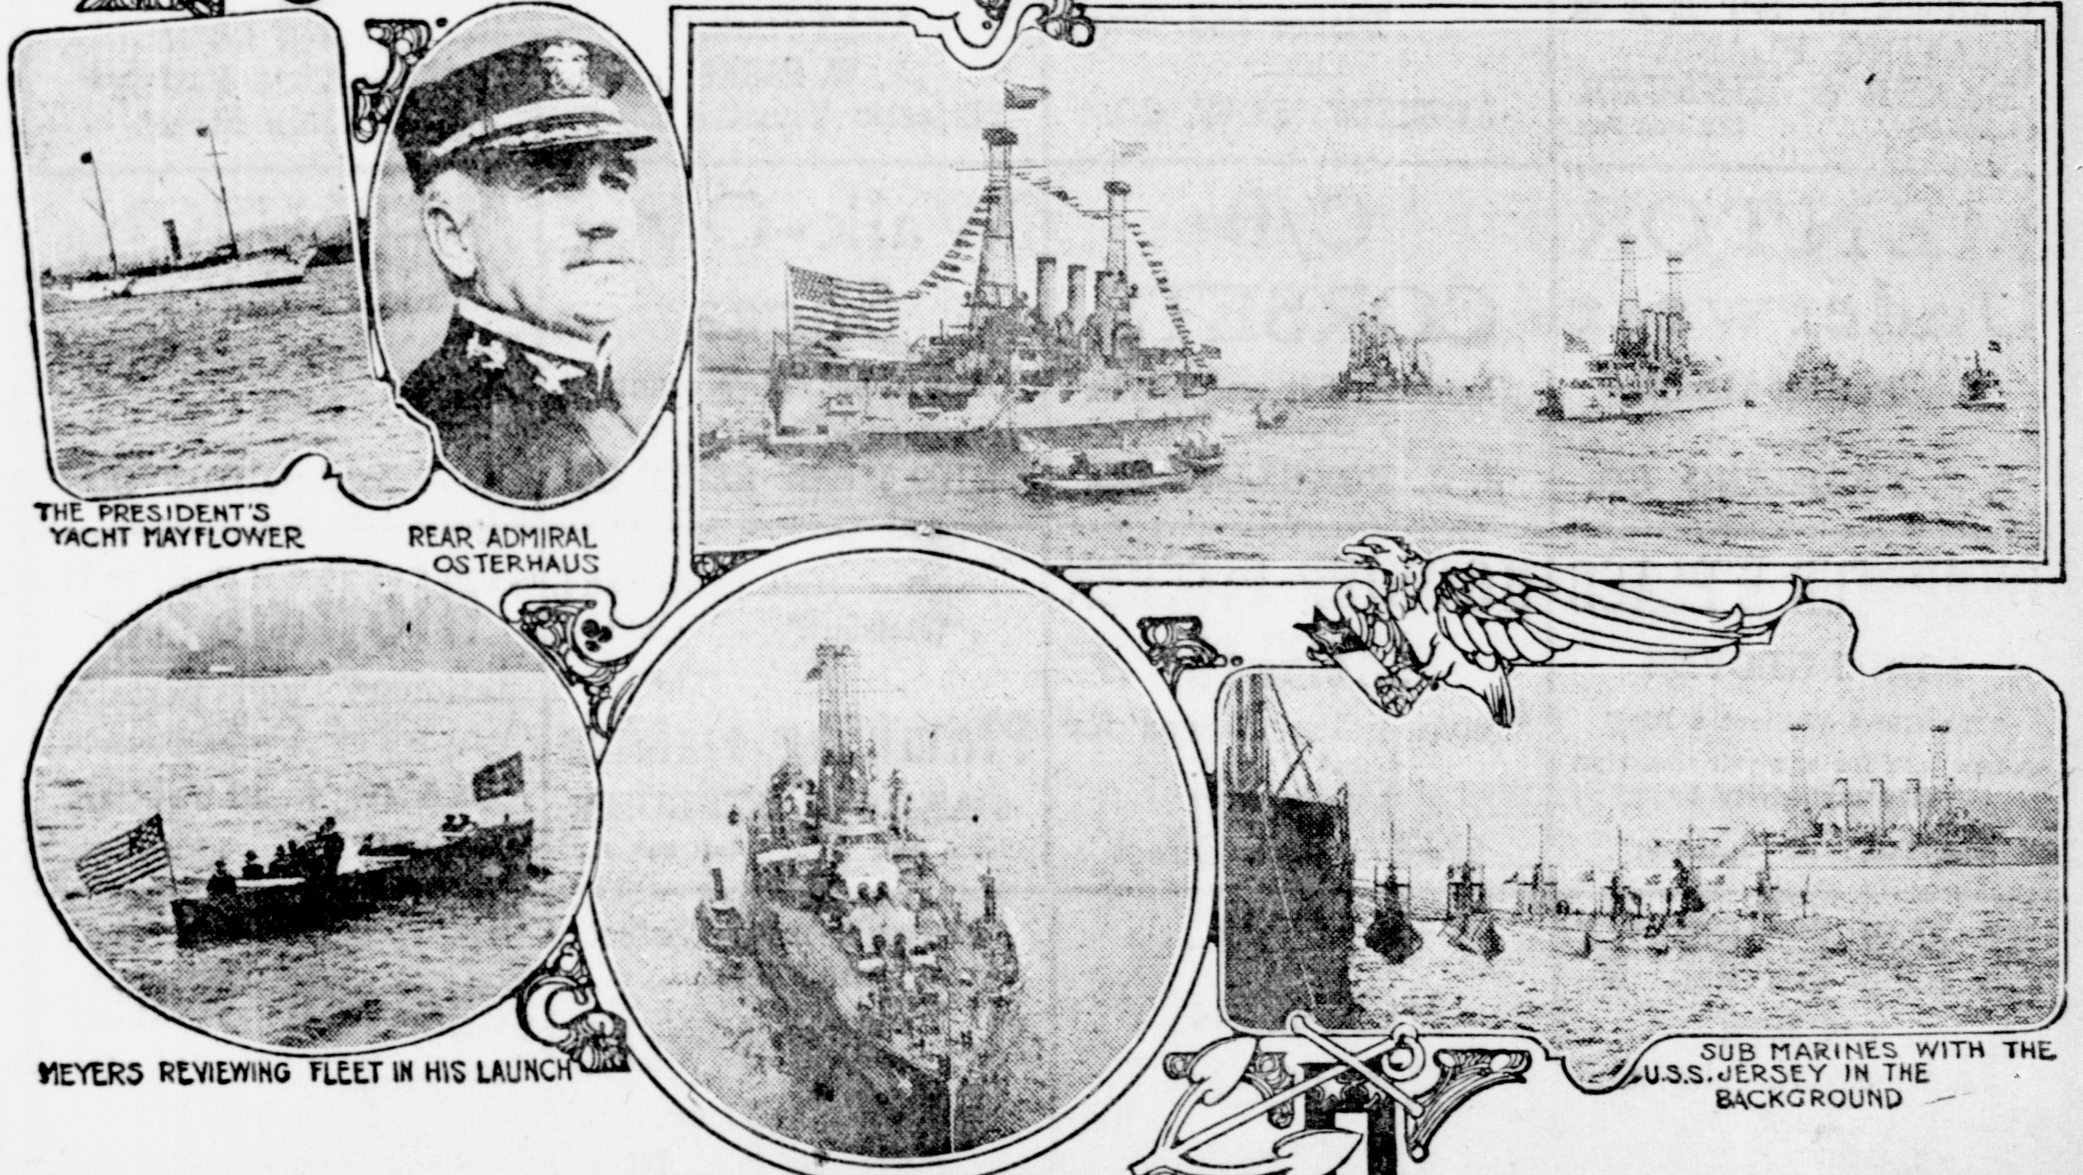

I have cured thousands, many of whom had been given up for lost. If your physical system has been impaired, if your vitality is assailed from overwork or worry, if you are tainted by disease in any form, you owe it to yourself to seek and obtain a restorative power at once.

MY COUNSEL WILL COST YOU NOTHING, BUT MY CHARGES FOR A PERFECT CURE WILL BE REASONABLE AND NOT MORE THAN YOU WILL BE WILLING TO PAY FOR THE BENEFITS CONFERRED.

WILL MAKE IOWA
MINES CLOSE DOWN

DES MOINES, Iowa, March 23.—The suspension of Iowa coal mines April 1, when 40,000 men will lay down their tools pending a wage settlement based on the results of the Cleveland conference became more threatening today when the operators rejected the miners' proposition to take care of the mines while idle. Unless the operators recede, the mines will be abandoned, causing heavy loss. The operators wanted a provision allowing them to make improvements during suspension but the miners said this simply meant mining coal and refused.

3 CHILDREN BURN

SHAWANO, Wis., March 23.—Word reached here today of the burning of the farm house home of Fred Zeimer, last night, and with it the incineration of Zeimer's three children, the eldest six years old. The father and mother were absent and the cause of the fire is unknown. They returned to find the home destroyed and in it the charred bodies of the children.

Breaks a Cold in a Day
And Cures any Cough that is Curable. Noted Doctor's Formula.

"From your druggist get two ounces of Glycerine and half an ounce of Concentrated Pine compound. Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of good whiskey. Take one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal and at bed time. Smaller doses to children according to age." This is the best formula known to science. There are many cheaper preparations of large quantity, but it don't pay to experiment with a bad cold. Be sure to get only the genuine (Globe) Concentrated Pine. Each half ounce bottle comes in a sealed tin screw-top case. If your druggist does not have it in stock he will get it quickly from his wholesale house. This has been published here every winter for six years and thousands of families know its value.

FIFTY-FIVE SOUL
MATES FOR MAN

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 23.—Blondes and brunettes, short and tall, all ages, and in fact every type of the "female of the species"—fifty-five of them were named as co-respondents by Mrs. Dorothy Evans, 38, filing suit for divorce and alimony from her husband, Benjamin Evans, 27, a barber here, this afternoon.

The names and descriptions of each of the alleged sweethearts of the fickle but popular Benjamin were given by Mrs. Evans. Stenographers, trained nurses, widows with property and others with chief assets of prettiness, were among those on which it was charged her husband lavished his attentions.

Mrs. Evans also charged extreme cruelty and characterized her husband the meanest, but the champion love-maker of this vicinity.

GILLAN TALKS TO NORMAL STUDENTS

Member of Board of Visitors Advises Future Teachers; Miss Annis Gray Sings

Speaking to the students and faculty at the La Crosse normal school, S. Y. Gillan of Milwaukee addressed the assemblage Friday on the subject "Motives." Mr. Gillan is editor of the "Western Teacher" and is an acknowledged authority on pedagogical matters and his talk was illuminating and instructive for the prospective teachers. The occasion of Mr. Gillan's visit here was in the performance of his duties of members of the board of visitors for the local institution.

Mrs. Annis Gray of Detroit, who created such a splendid impression by her singing in the "Stabat Mater" added further to her conquest by appearing the next day at the school and rendering a group of Carrie Jacobs Bond's beautiful songs for children. Her rendition of these exquisite gems was as artistic and sympathetic as a thorough musician can make them.

The oratorio "Stabat Mater" was a success financially as well as in artistic terms and the successful management of the event is due in great measure to E. D. Long of the faculty who attended to the business end of the concert. The proceeds from the oratorio will go to the athletic association which will invest the funds in badly needed track and field apparatus.

The class in military drill will have charge of the next social hour, and a committee composed of Dickinson, Brandenburg and Robinson are making arrangements for the event. A varied program will be rendered in which the school company will perform, and the direction of Captain Fairchild.

President Cotton is in attendance at the meeting of the board of normal school presidents of the northwest which is convening in Chicago. The department of biology and physiology has received a consignment of apparatus consisting of a complete equipment for bacteriological and digestion work. Prof. Brettnall who is in charge of the work is now able to offer work of college grade in zoology, botany, physiology, histology and bacteriology and the local normal has now one of the most complete science departments of any of the state normals.

Where Strength is Needed.
It is one thing to "play the game" before applauding thousands, and quite another to do it in the ordinary quiet concerns of daily life.

Political Difficulty.

Our Fortune.
We should manage our fortune as we do our health—enjoy it when good, be patient when it is bad and never apply violent remedies except in case of violent necessity.—La Rochefoucauld.

Made Mockery of Marriage.
A question as to the validity of a marriage which took place recently in Colombo, Ceylon, has arisen. The bride and bridegroom played a rather unusual practical joke at the ceremony, for the former dressed up as the bridegroom and the latter masqueraded in the woman's clothes, and the ceremony was quite through before the two people concerned were identified.

STOCK SPECIAL
STARTS MONDAY

Train Carrying Speakers
Will Tour State Soon;
Will Talk on Wisconsin Livestock

MADISON, Wis., March 23.—The "livestock special," to stimulate greater interest in livestock farming, will start next Monday at Dodgeville, Iowa county, and will traverse Grant, Iowa, Dane, Sauk, Columbia, Juneau, Monroe, La Crosse, Trempealeau, Rock, Walworth, Waukesha, Fond du Lac and Dodge counties. Representative specimens of the Clydesdale and Percheron breeds will be carried in the livestock car for the purpose of exhibiting desirable draft types.

In the ten states having stallion registration boards, of which Wisconsin is one, there is, according to well authenticated reports, but one good draft sire for every 724 horses, while in the whole United States there is but one purebred draft animal to every 167 horses found on the farms and ranches. During the last ten years Wisconsin has made much progress in horse breeding. In 1900 according to government reports, the valuation of cattle in Wisconsin was greater than that of horses, but in 1910 this situation was reversed. The valuation of horses in the last ten years increased 100 per cent while that of cattle increased but 43 per cent. In 1910 a small Holstein county in Wisconsin sold $200,000 worth of livestock, as a result of co-operation and organization. Five counties have organized horsebreeders' clubs. On the "livestock special," Dr. A. S. Alexander, who has charge of the registration of stallions in Wisconsin, will be one of the speakers, and will be assisted by practical horsemen including L. P. Martiny, president of the Wisconsin Livestock Breeders' association, and David Inrie of St. Croix county.

In Ancient Days.
The chimney corner was a favorite place for early settlers when they took their tobacco. Buckets were the chief reliance of the fire fighters. When an alarm was cried each citizen grabbed his buckets and ran to answer it. If he couldn't respond in an instant he threw his buckets out his window, and his neighbor picked them up and carried them along.

Doubting Tom.
"Young men believe in nothing nowadays," says Mrs. Ramsbotham, with a deep sigh. "Why, there's my nephew, Tom, who was brought up as a Christian, and now he's an acrostic."

Possibly the Day May Come.
To possess more than you can enjoy should be regarded as being as vicious and vulgar as to eat more than you can digest or drink more than you can carry.—Exchange.

THANK YOU!
SHE SAYS

Because, After Doctor's Medicines
and Everything Else Had Failed,
The Woman's Tonic Brought
... Long Sought Relief

COPPER HILL, Va.—"I must thank you," writes Mrs. Ida Conner, of this place, "because you have done so much for me."

Cardui is a wonderful medicine, and it's a pleasure to write about the benefit received from its use.

Many years I had to stay in bed, sick with bearing-down pains and pain in my side.

I had given up all hopes of ever getting well, because doctors' medicines which I took at different times gave me no relief, nor anything else that anybody told me to try.

Finally, I began to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, three times a day.

After a few doses, the pain in my side grew less, then quit, and it hasn't come back since.

I feel like a new person now, and cannot help but recommend such a good medicine.

There is no reason why any woman should suffer from pain, such as Mrs. Conner describes.

Cardui is a remedy for just such conditions. Thousands of women have found relief in its use.

You will find relief, too. Don't give up! Give yourself one more chance. Take Cardui.

WINNIPEG, Man., March 23.—Fourteen passengers, one a woman, were seriously injured, three of them critically, when five coaches of a Canadian Pacific settlers' train, drawn by two locomotives, bound from Toronto for Winnipeg, left the rails and plunged over a thirty-foot embankment at Jackfish, east of Port Arthur. A broken rail was the cause of the accident.

Glorious News
comes from Dr. J. T. Curtis, Dwight, Kan. He writes: "I not only have cured bad cases of eczema in my patients with Electric Bitters, but also cured myself by them of the same disease. Its an excellent remedy for eczema, tetters, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. All lands in the Hilliard district are in charge of the Chamber of Commerce, an organization composed of the leading business men of Hilliard and the Hilliard district. THE BIJOUPIN TOURNEY
CLOSES TODAY

CHICAGO, March 23.—The closing shots in the American Bowling congress tournament are being fired today in the doubles and singles. The national competition will be closed this afternoon and the bowler cracks from all over the country will then roll in the big sweepstakes event. Over fifty teams are entered. The only excitement in yesterday's bombardment of the pins came in the work of Welsh and Mauser of Youngstown, Ohio, who dropped into second place with 1,256, three pins behind the leaders. Blouin and Rolfe of Chicago went into third place in this event.

AD STICKS TO JONES

SEATTLE, Wash., March 23.—"If Tom McCarey wants to do business with me, he will have to act through Tom Jones, my manager." This was the statement made here today by Lightweight Champion Ad Wolgast in reply to a telegram from the California promoter saying that Wolgast would not be asked to fight in southern California again while Tom Jones was his manager.

M'GOVERN GETS A DRAW WITH DRISCOLL

MADISON, Wis., March 23.—Gene McGovern and Willie Driscoll of Milwaukee boxed ten rounds to a draw in the wind-up of the show given here last night by the Badger Athletic club. Frequent clinching marred the fight. McGovern had a shade up to the last round, when Driscoll earned a draw by a whirlwind finish. Joe Stehlich, Racine, stopped Ray Richmond, a local boy, in the seventh round of the semi-windup. Young McCann, Madison, outpointed Billy Fitzgerald, Milwaukee, in the second bout, and Young Mahoney, Racine, shaded Frankie Rowan, Milwaukee, in the first curtain raiser.

DEMAREST NOT IN FORM

NEW YORK, March 23.—If present form counts for anything, Calvin Demarest is due for a defeat at the hands of Willie Hoppe, when they meet April 11 for the 18.2 balk line billiard championship. Demarest was defeated twice yesterday in practice. Albert Cutler of Boston, administering one and George Slosson the other.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLDBALL MEETING IS POSTPONED

Quorum Not Present Last Night; Will Be Held Monday Evening; Elliott Explains Situation

The meeting of the La Crosse baseball club which was to have been held at the court house last evening was postponed until Monday evening, March 25, because a quorum was not present.

Before adjourning the meeting President J. A. Elliott of the Minny league explained the situation which confronts the league. He said that Superior, at their annual meeting, had decided to have nothing more to do with the Minny league and that Duluth, the other northern club, owed the league money, as they had failed to post their guarantee that they would finish the season. Although these two towns are good drawing cards, they are located too far away from the other cities in the league and at the meeting at Eau Claire last Monday it was the unanimous opinion of the directors present that the league could get along without Superior and Duluth. Every club in the organization is in debt to the league, explained Mr. Elliott. Superior and Duluth asked under what conditions they could secure their release from the league and they were told that they would be released for $500 in addition to what they owe the league.

In regard to a schedule Mr. Elliott explained that one would be drawn up for four and six club leagues. La Crosse, Winona, Eau Claire and Rochester are under consideration but Chippewa Falls is preferred to Rochester if they can be secured. The season is to open May 14 and close August 27 with fifteen open dates which can be used for exhibition games.

It was announced that about $1,100 has been collected for the subscription fund for the baseball team and it is expected that at least $3,000 will be secured within a short time.

In your anxiety to give the devil his due, don't give him everything else you can get hold of.

FAN-ATICAL FANCIES

Ever stop to think how many former Minny and Wisconsin leaguers are in the majors? Eddie Konetchy, the local boy, who at one time played first base for La Crosse, is now with the St. Louis Cardinals and is regarded as one of the best first sackers in the business; Beebe, formerly of Oshkosh, is twirling for the Cincinnati Reds; Schardt, another local player, pitched last year for Brooklyn, and Jack Warhop, the Freeport slab artist, is a member of the New York American pitching staff. Konetchy, by the way, led the National league first basemen in fielding last year with a percentage of .991 in 158 games. Bues, former third baseman for the Outcasts, is being tried out by the New York Giants; Ward Miller, Wausau, outfielder, apparently stands a chance of getting a job with the Chicago Cubs, and Dolan, formerly of Oshkosh, is being tried out for third base with the New York Highlanders. Nagle of Wausau was also given a tryout with the Chicago Cubs but Manager Chance released the southpaw yesterday.

If the Y. M. C. A. and high school quintets arrange for a game, the basketball championship of the city can be settled this year. The Y. team recently played and defeated the normal school five by a good margin, and the highs and normals will clash this evening. If the highs beat the normal school the latter will be eliminated from the race. One of the greatest games of the season would undoubtedly follow if the highs and the Y. M. C. A. would meet for the championship as both teams are fast.

The Wisconsin and Purdue basketball teams established marvelous records this year as each won ten games and went through the season without meeting with a single defeat. Both claim the western championship. However, it was impossible for these two fives to get together to play for the title although Badger fans were anxious to have such a game arranged. What a game it would be if the Badgers and the Boilermakers could only get together and settle the championship.

A man never becomes too old to throw out his chest as he passes a looking glass.

KONEY WRITES OF HIS PLANS

Local Star in Big League Says This Will Be His Banner Season; Dunbar Is Free

In a letter to J. A. Elliott, Ed. Konetchy, star first baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, said that he expected this year to be his banner season. This is Koney's fifth season as a big leaguer and he has every intention of having the most successful year of his brilliant major league career. Ed's letter came from Jackson, Miss., where the Cardinals were training for the championship season, but he stated that the St. Louis team was to go home Thursday evening and arrive there yesterday. The spring series between the Cardinals and the Browns, which was to have been started today, has been postponed until next Saturday on account of the adverse weather conditions.

Dunbar, who has pitched for the Wausau baseball club for several years, may be signed up by the Green Bay team this season. The Wausau twirler is now a free agent and can sign with any club that wants his services.

Louis Heilbroner, publisher of the Base Ball Blue Book, wrote President Elliott yesterday asking for information regarding the Minny League.

May Oust Regular
MONROE, La., March 23.—That either Louden or Westertil, recruits, will oust Moriarity from third base is the belief here today. Moriarity has not yet put in an appearance and the playing of Louden and Westertil has been of the top notch variety. Part of the squad leaves here today to play the Topeka, Kas., team tomorrow.

To Prevent Pilfering
ATLANTA, Ga., March 23.—Fewer bases will be stolen on Wolverton's Highlanders this year if the instructions he is giving his batterymen are followed. The New York manager remained behind his catchers during practice yesterday and drilled the batteries in watchfulness and rapidity by having every man who reached first try to steal.

Brown Squad Splits
MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 23.—The Brown squad was split today, one team playing the Montgomery, Southern association club, and the other lining up against Tuscaloosa university. Monte Cross headed the team, making the trip to Tuscaloosa.

Bresnahan Still Grouch
ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 23.—The grouch developed by Manager Bresnahan as a result of returning here with the team only to learn that the series with the Browns had been postponed was not improved today. A sleet storm swept over St. Louis and work was out of the question.

HIGHS AND NORMALS PLAY GAME TONIGHT

A game which will go far towards settling the city basketball championship is to be played at the normal school gymnasium this evening when the high and normal school quintets meet in a contest which gives every indication of being one of the best of the season.

After their great victory over Chippewa Falls at Eau Claire last Saturday which entitles them to attend the championship at Appleton for the third successive year, the highs are in good condition for the contest tonight and they expect to defeat the normal five by a wide margin. That the normal school will have a difficult task in holding down the highs is certain for the highs have been playing a whirlwind game of late while the normal quintet has not been showing quite as much speed. However, a good battle is bound to ensue as each team wants to win this game.

The teams will line up as follows: High school—Forwards, Captain Stavrum and Strum; center, Welles; guards, Hayes and Jungbluth. Normal school—Forwards, Captain Dahl and Bonneville; center, Hyde; guards, Byers and Glasbrenner.
